

Stony Brook University

Stony Brook University School of Nursing

Master of Science, Nursing Education
Nursing Education Advanced Certificate
Virtual Information Session

Anna-Marie Wellins, DNP, M.Ed., ANP-C

School of Nursing

About our School

- One of 64 SUNY campuses
- One of only four University Center campuses in SUNY
- One of eleven schools at Stony Brook University
- One of five schools at Health Sciences Center
- US News and World Report Rankings:
 - #77 National Universities
 - #120 Best Value Schools
 - #31 Top Public Schools (tie)
- 2021 QS US University Ranking: #39
- Wall Street Journal Ranking:

#1 Public University in NY

About Our School

- Accredited by Commission of Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE)
- 40 Full-Time and Part-Time Faculty
- 92% of Faculty hold Doctoral Degrees
- Faculty are Clinical Experts in their Field
- Faculty are Active Researchers
- SON Graduates Highly Employable

Why choosing a program within Stony Brook School of Nursing?

- Predominantly online programs
- New York State tuition as NYS Residents
- Stony Brook University's reputation
- Seats for all required classes are guaranteed.(You cannot be closed out of a required course.)

Program Overview

The Master of Science Program in Nursing Education prepares nurses as educators to teach new and advanced nurses, in schools of nursing as well as in clinical settings. This program is offered as an executive cohort program using a blended model with scheduled on-site immersions and curriculum delivery via a computer mediated modality.

45 Credits On-Line Didactic
3 Years in Length
On-Site Intensives
255 Clinical Hours

Within this program, there are:

-3 Core Courses

- Organizational Leadership and Role Transformation (3 credits)
- Quality Improvement, Safety, and Health Care Technologies (3 credits)
- Health Care Policy and Advocacy (2 credits)

-2 Research Courses

- Nursing Research & Evidence-Based Practice I (3 credits)
- Nursing Research & Evidence-Based Practice II (3 credits)

-3 courses

Pharmacology, Health Assessment and Pathophysiology courses (3 credits each)

- 3 Education Courses (3 credits each)

-1 Elective course (2 credits)

-3 Clinical Courses

- Advanced Theory & Practice in Nursing Education I (3 credits)
- Advanced Theory & Practice in Nursing Education II (4 credits)
- Advanced Theory and Practice in Nursing Education III (4 credits)

The Nursing Education Advanced Certificate will prepare Nurse Educators to teach new and advanced nurses, both in schools of nursing as well as in clinical settings. Students will participate in scheduled on-site immersions and curriculum will be delivered via a computer-mediated modality.

Students admitted to the Advanced Certificate Program will be advised regarding the courses that have to be taken and provided with a pathway to complete the Certificate.

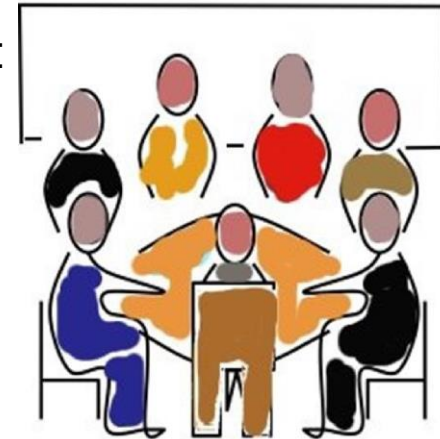

- All students are accepted on a part-time pathway
- The three-year, part-time pathway was developed for working RNs

- Two to four on site sessions per course (Core courses are usually offered fully online, select sessions may be offered via Zoom at faculty discretion))
- On site sessions take place on weekdays from 9AM to 12PM and/or 1PM to 4PM (times may be adjusted per Faculty request)
- Advanced Health Assessment has a minimum of 3 onsite days
 - Collaborative Learning Environment
 - Team Based Learning
 - Guest Lecturers
 - Development of a Project Proposal

Process for Clinical Experiences

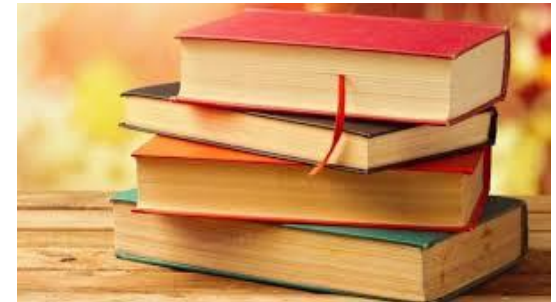

- Students in the Master's in Education program complete 75 hours in the first clinical course and 90 hours in the last two clinical courses (a total of 255 hours).
- Students can use the School's database to locate clinical sites with which the School has affiliation agreements.
 - Once a suitable site is identified, students submit a clinical placement request form for processing.
- The Office of Clinical Placements facilitates the processing of clinical placement requests and contracts for clinical affiliations within the master's and advanced certificate programs.
- The Office of Clinical Placements works collaboratively with faculty to secure clinical placement sites for students.

The Master of Science in Nursing Education starts once a year in the summer.

The online application will be available every year in August under Quick Links in our website
<https://graduateadmissions.stonybrook.edu/apply/>

Application deadlines can be checked in our website
<https://nursing.stonybrookmedicine.edu/academic>

Master's of Nursing Education - Admission Requirements

- Completed application.
- Baccalaureate degree with an upper-division nursing major from an accredited nursing program.
- Minimum cumulative grade point average (GPA) of 3.0.
- Unofficial transcripts from all colleges/universities attended. Transcripts from international institutions must be accompanied by a course-by-course evaluation by a NACES-accredited evaluation service, such as World Education Services \(WES\). Unofficial documents can be submitted with the application.
- Current unencumbered registered nurse license for NYS.
- Three-credit undergraduate course in health assessment.
- Three-credit undergraduate course in statistics.
- Three letters of recommendation.
- Current curriculum vitae/resume.
- Written statement.
- Minimum of one year of recent relevant experience (preferred).
- Meet technical standards for admission and retention.

Please visit our website for additional information
<https://nursing.stonybrookmedicine.edu/nursingeducationmaster>

Admission Requirements – Advanced Certificate in Nursing Education

- Completed application.
- Baccalaureate degree with an upper-division nursing major from an accredited nursing program.
- Advanced-level nursing master's or doctoral degree from an accredited nursing program.
- Minimum cumulative grade point average (GPA) of 3.0.
- Unofficial transcripts from all colleges/universities attended. Transcripts from international institutions must be accompanied by a course-by-course evaluation by a NACES-accredited evaluation service, such as World Education Services \(WES\). Unofficial documents can be submitted with the application.
- Current unencumbered registered nurse license for NYS.
- Three-credit undergraduate course in health assessment.
- Three-credit undergraduate course in statistics.
- Three letters of recommendation.
- Current curriculum vitae/resume.
- Written statement.
- Minimum of one year of recent relevant experience (preferred).
- Meet technical standards for admission and retention.

Application – Additional Notes

- References – submitted electronically via the online application
 - Email addresses of 3 professional references
 - Vary your selection
 - Family and friends are not acceptable
- Completion of all preadmission coursework is required prior to starting the program.
- Prerequisite courses do not age out
Required grade is C or higher
- You may be interviewed as part of the admission process.
- $100 Application fee
- The Admissions and Academic Standards Committee and the Dean of the School of Nursing make final decisions regarding the selection of incoming classes

Additional Requirements upon Admission

- Official transcripts from the college or university that awarded the nursing bachelor's degree and from any institution where admission prerequisite courses were completed. Official transfer equivalency credits evaluation certificate by an accredited evaluation service, such as World Education Services \(WES\), to accompany transcripts from international institutions.
- Certification in Basic Life Support for Health Care Providers (BLS/AED).
- Evidence of meeting all university health requirements.
- Evidence of health insurance.
- Evidence of RN/student malpractice insurance.
- An account with DISA Healthcare/CastleBranch, a web-based software system for uploading and managing health and professional documents required to maintain enrollment in the program. This system requires a one-time fee.

The Stony Brook University School of Nursing reserves the right to change admission and program criteria to meet prevailing accreditation, regulatory, and registration requirements.

The Education programs admit students only in the Summer term:

Summer term begins at the end of May

Mandatory Onsite orientation is usually scheduled for mid-April.

Accepted students will receive 6-8 weeks notification of the orientation date.

ORIENTATION IS MANDATORY

Click on link below and select “Graduate” for the most recent per credit cost:

<https://www.stonybrook.edu/commcms/bursar/tuition/>

Please note that other fees and charges apply.

Financial Aid

Please contact the Financial Aid Office at Stony Brook University:

Phone: 631-632-6840

Email: finaid@stonybrook.edu

Website: <https://www.stonybrook.edu/commcms/finaid/>

For additional information please contact:

Silvana Jara at silvana.jara@stonybrook.edu

Note: PPT revised 9.16.26- Subject to change

Stony Brook University

Go Seawolves!