

Stony Brook School of Nursing

Office of Research and Innovation Newsletter

October 9th, 2024

Greetings to all,

We continue the trend of good news for the Office of Research and Innovation at the Stony Brook School of Nursing. Dr. Sylvia Wood was invited to speak at a panel presentation for the New York Academy of Medicine (NYAM) talk entitled, "Getting Your PhD in Nursing." Dr. Wood will represent Stony Brook Nursing and be joined by seven other PhD Program directors from the Tri-state area. Please mark your calendar for this live webinar – November 6th, 2024 (5:30 pm to 7:00 pm) and register using this link.

I absolutely need to give a big shout out to the Dr. W. Burghardt Turner Fellowship Program and the Center for Inclusive Education (CIE). I had the privilege of meeting so many talented and impressive scholars at the annual Turner Fellowship Dinner on September 25th, 2024. Please take a moment and check out the work that is being done by clicking here. I was truly inspired to meet members of the CIE team and learn about their incredible efforts to advance diversity in the scientific workforce.

More good news....the call for abstracts for the Eastern Nursing Research Society (ENRS) 37th Scientific Sessions in Philadelphia is open!!! Our conference theme is – Freedom to advance health and well-being through revolutionary nursing research partnerships. We have a fabulous panel of presenters. Our keynote speaker is Vincent Guilamo-Ramos from John Hopkins School of Nursing, and our very own Provost Carl Lejuez will be moderating the plenary. Please consider submitting an abstract for a presentation, poster session or symposium. Click here for more details to come, and as always, please reach out to me with any questions.

I send my very best wishes to all. Let's continue to take care of ourselves and each other.

Sincerely,

Ann-Margaret Navarra, PhD, CPNP-PC, FAAN
