

50th Anniversary Seminar Series

PTSD In Healthcare Personnel: Lessons from Vietnam

Presented by Stony Brook University School of Nursing

Wednesday, November 11, 2020
11 - 12 PM

Seminar will be held via Zoom

In honor of Veterans' Day, Ms. Furey, who served as an Army Nurse in Vietnam in 1969, will give a brief history of nurses contributions during America's Wars; discuss the pioneering work of Department of Veterans Affairs clinicians and researchers, of which she was a part, in understanding the impact of war-related stressors on the psycho-social well-being of Vietnam veteran nurses, and how these findings can help inform our healthcare workers who serve in the battle against COVID-19.

EVENT SPEAKER

Ms. Joan Furey, MA, RN
US Army Nurse Veteran

TOPICS COVERED

- Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder
- Four Symptom Clusters Associated with PTSD
- Four Stressors Experienced by Vietnam Veteran Nurses
- Four Factors that Indicate an Individual may Require Treatment for Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder
- Common Stressors in Military and Civilian Healthcare Settings Today.

LEARN MORE & REGISTER

<https://cvent.me/7kOEG9>

Registrants will receive virtual login information via email upon registration completion. This is a free educational opportunity.

NEXT EVENT

Heart Failure
Wednesday, December 2nd
4 -5 PM

Earn Nursing CE Professional Credits

Seminar registrants can earn Nursing Continuing Professional Development credits for a small fee. The School of Nursing is an approved provider of Nursing Continuing Professional Development by the PA State Nurses Association, an accredited approver by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on accreditation.

Stony Brook
School of Nursing